

Warehouse Standard Operating Procedure

Receiving Goods

All incoming products must be inspected before being stored.

Storage Rules

Products must be stored according to their category and shelf location.

Damaged Products

Damaged products should be moved to the quarantine area and reported immediately.

Picking Process

Warehouse staff should always use the First In First Out (FIFO) method.

Dispatch

Products must be scanned before dispatch to ensure correct shipment.